Order :—

During his late inspection it was brought to the notice of the Madras Supply that the purchase of a pair of brass lamps for the use of the Sree Ranganathaswami temple at Srirangapatam was absolutely necessary. He accordingly gave personal instructions for their purchase. One Venkatachary of the brass manufacturing Company at Nagamangala supplied the same and submitted a bill for Rs. 100/- being the cost thereof.

2. Under the foregoing

going circumstances
the Govt are pleased to sanction the payment of a sum of
Rs. 100/ to the aforesaid Venkatachary
the charge being met from the balance of Rs. 2617-1-10 available at the credit of the temple on the 1st Oct. 94 under the head "Receipts of
